

Rudplan is a renowned consulting engineering company providing services in the mining, mineral processing, geology, and environment protection sectors. Its technical services cover the preparation of studies (conceptual, feasibility, and detailed reports), mine and process audits, basic and detailed engineering, project and construction management, procurement, start-up and commissioning, and operations assistance.

Rudplan has provided technical services nationwide spanning all Macedonia. The company can provide expertise in the Macedonian and English languages, and can, if required, provide basic expertise in other languages.